Dear Mr. Mc See:

I wrote to Mr. Head some time ago about the Joel Dail case. I now understand that Dail has been caught. I sent Dail some coin that cost me $510. I would like to try to receive my money back.
Please let me know to whom I should write to in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Ston Kesselman

Mr Stan Kesselman

Answer to your letter —

I would accept a price of 212 <sup>75</sup> for the 1852-D VF
2 1/2 Gold in my Feb 1964
Scripbook Ad.

I checked the coin & it is very strong for VF
and better condition.

Can hold it a reasonable time for you.

Best wishes
John Martin

DEAR MR. KESSELMAN

Dear Sir:

In accordance with your letter of February 24th,
I am enclosing Cashier's Check in the amount of $37.50 for the 1851-0 XF-AU $2-1/2 Gold Piece.

I am, at the present time, interested in the following:

- 1 - $20 CC Gold Piece
- 1 - 1908-NM $10 Gold Piece
- 1 - 1908-DNM $10 Gold Piece

I have an offer from local dealers on the two $10 NM pieces for $45 each for BU condition. On the $20 CC Gold Piece, I have a quote of $72 on an 1873 in XF condition. Do you have these pieces available at these prices?

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Kesselman.....

Acknowledging with thanks.....Registered Air Parcel No. 463559 containing the following items as recently requested:

U. S. Gold

$10.00	1854-0	XF+.....$ 40.00
$10.00	1857-P	VF.....$ 90.00

As your note of the 4th indicated.....the 1854-0 is really a pretty coin and a welcome addition to my collection. The 1857-P may be classed better than VF when the overall description is considered...but.....I hesitated slightly before accepting it since under a glass it can be noted that there are some very detracting initial like scratches in the reverse field above the eagle's head as well as on the obverse in front of the bust. I have tried very hard to avoid such a coin since it would only necessitate replacing it before I would be completely satisfied with the date. As it is...it will be retained but would sincerely appreciate the elimination of such conditioned coins from future approval requests.

Attached please find Bank Draft in the sum of $130.00 as payment in full for the above.

Thank you.....and with kind regards....

Most respectfully,

Dear Stan:

Thank you for your letter of March 12 which is now at hand.

The $2.50 gold is of no interest to me at this time. Last week I purchased a 1854 D $3 gold piece from Abe Kosoff which now makes my collection complete. However, from time to time it is possible I would be interested in upgrading some of the dates with an occasional proof. You might keep me in mind if something like that comes along.

Naturally I am always interested in 1891 CC $20 and I do need an 1870 CC $20 in case you should stumble onto one.

Best wishes,

Bill Stremmel

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

Thank you for your letters and the refund check. There is some basis for your statements about early gold, but generally we feel an edge brace more than a tiny nick lowers the grade  $\frac{1}{2}$ -1 degree and is certainly not desirable.

I also feel any badly damaged, scratched + "dug" coin cannot be graded VF-EF-AU no matter how little actual wear the surface shows.

Anyhow, That's how I look at it, and as far as I personally am concerned I don't want them at any price.

I am very pleased and satisfied with your fairness in refunding when I am not satisfied, and on that basis hope to continue a mutually satisfactory business relationship.

Dear Mr. Messelman,

You can get some idea of our business operations from our letterhead.

We are, by no means, a big outfit as this is a little more than a sideline with us since home building & general construction is our main business. However, I am sure that we can help fill your needs providing we can agree on a method of operation.

The way you propose to do business with us is satisfactory as far as you go, but let me add a few things, if I may.

I will be glad to buy at auction for you, for, as you say, a small commission. This is fine as I will be attending any worthwhile auction within 50 miles anyway. The only thing I would require in this case is your limit & cash in advance. The only thing about auctions is this area is I would not have the opportunity to carefully inspect the coins more than a few hours in advance of the auction. The only descriptions of the coins you would have in advance would be those listed on the auction sheet. The only assurance I could give you here is that I would not buy a damaged coin, or a coin that was overgraded by more than a quarter ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of a grade. I use B. & D. grading at all times when selling through the mail. So if the coin was graded F by the auctioneer but was only VG+ by B. & D. I would still buy at your limit or less. Of course, if the coins are undergraded there is ~~no~~ problem at all. So, keep in mind that with these auctions (except for my own) I could not send you a detailed description of the coins but only an auction sheet. I may be able, in some cases, to get an advance preview & send you a full description. Naturally, this would be to our advantage.

Now, as for coins that are available at private sale, I will be able to send you a detailed description in advance. If you are interested, then you will have to send your best offer ~~along~~ along with the cash to cover the purchase. I will most likely have these coins on a 7-10 day consignment, longer I hope, but in any case, you will be able to inspect them & return them if unsatisfied within whatever consignment period I may have. Your satisfaction is guaranteed or money back in these private sales only. I say this because I am going to dignify for a moment & mention auction again.

As I'm sure you know, if I buy at auction whether in your name or mine, a sale made in person at most auctions will be final with no refund guaranteed if unsatisfied. There are only several ways that I know of to get around this problem. 1) get a detailed description in advance which will be possible in many cases. →

- 2) make it understood & agreed to that I am buying for an individual out of town & that no sale is final until you are satisfied.
- 3) better yet, write to the auction house & instruct them that I am your agent & buying in your behalf.

Maybe you have some suggestions? Remember that we only have this problem when I cannot deliver these coins well enough in advance to give you my personal description.

Now, back to private sale of coins. As you may have guessed we do not deal in raw gold at all. We deal only in common type gold. So all this gold I have access to, belongs to my business associates. Please believe me when I say that there is a lot of raw gold available in this area. One man, in fact, has so much that he has refused to list any of it. He wants a want list. So in this case we must have a want list from you. And to make our job much easier I hope you can send us a want list even if you list only 30 or 40 coins. I suggest you send me a list also of the most requested gold you have want lists for. In this case I won't quit looking, after I've found one coin of a particular date than you can use several.

Now, as for these 100 piece I will have access to in about a month. I will get a complete description for you. I hope you can buy a large part of it, or if possible, all of it. If, after checking over the list I send you, you feel that you would like to buy a great deal of it, then I hope you will be able to make the trip to Wash. to inspect the coins yourself. We can probably arrive at some sort of a figure ~~before~~<sup>before</sup> you arrive here in town. I am almost positive that the owner of this gold will not let it leave his possession →

Now if I give him a bond to cover theft & damage, etc., etc. So I'm almost sure that you will have to come to work if I can't come to N.Y. actually that would be the only way to handle a sale of this size. This man who owns the gold is thinking about putting it up at auction. I am trying to convince him to sell it privately.

It will be to your disadvantage if it is sold at auction. The price may be a lot higher. But at any rate you will have a crack at these coins one way or the other, auction or private. I have said enough to last a month. Let me know if you have any questions.
I will furnish references if & when necessary. My.

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

Thanks for your list. I've had a letter from the US Court in Chicago (you probably got the same one) saying the money recovered in the Day case would be sent soon. If the amount is enough I will probably take that 1869-D gold dollar. Maybe some others too. I will write you again when I receive the check from the Court.

Good wishes,

William B Thomas

Dear Mr. Kesselman,

Want to say thank you for you kind letters and the lists as being received.

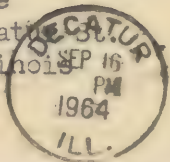

Just returned to my desk this week after another two months of additional hospitalization. Will try to consider some of the items you offer as opportunity permits.....but please keep my name on your mailing list and continue sending your offerings.

With kindest personal regards.

Thank you for your quotations of September 26th. I delayed in answering because I had ordered from another dealer.

Since I am anxious to have these coins to complete sets for clients today I wrote this dealer and asked him to ship or return my money.

If I do not receive the coins from him I will write you immediately.

I am in need of the following:

one $20.00 Gold Denver and one $20.00 gold New Orleans.
One $5.00 Gold New Orleans. All in V.F. or better.

Dear Sir :

I have been looking for some $2\frac{1}{2}$ , But missed your ad in the scrapbook of August 1964.

If you would have these coins still by chance, would you please send me on approval, the 1877<sup>AV.</sup> & 1874<sup>AV.</sup> -  $2\frac{1}{2}$  quarter eagles. Or either, one if you still have. Please register.
I am in the market for these coins first, But I need others, so let me know, if you still have them. Maybe you could send me a list of  $2\frac{1}{2}$  that you have in E. F. or better.

I am a stamp & coin dealer,
but these  $2\frac{1}{2}$  I want in my

Dear Stan,

Your letter of the 6th instant is at hand and I can quote to you the following coins net: Eagles, 1861-S EF at $142.50, 1873-S VF at $110.00, 1892-O AU at $41.50, 1893-O AU at $45.00, and the 1857-O half eagle in AU at $140.00. I can also quote an 1859-D quarter eagle nearly EF at $237.50. It will probably go EF if it were cleaned, but I am too lazy. I shall hold all of the above for a short time pending receipt of further advice from you.

The 1889 eagle is interesting, but I would buy only perfect proof specimens. I have three of these in AU-Unc. right now and this should be enough.

Keep me in mind on some nice VF-EF gold dollars since I will buy up to 50 pieces at $29.00 each.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stan:

Just received your letter offering to trade the 1871 A.U. and 1864 VF plus Gold dollars for my Alaska DWT set and $50.00 . I accept and am enclosing the Alaska set and a check for $50.00.

Will have to wait on the 1849-G, since I have gotten no money in yet!

You did not say what you are studying!

My wife is going to go to Womans Club and said if I'd get this ready right away she would mail it for me this morning, otherwise I'll have to do it when I go after my daughter at 4:00 when she gets out of school.

More next time. Thanks.

OH, yes, can you trade the 1849-C for an 1849-D. The 1849-D was called, by the dealer I got it from, A.U. (I traded an 1926 20 Quetzales of Guatemala , UNC . for it and he traded, no he sold, the 20 Quetzales for $250.00) I'd call it V.F because it had been cleaned and had a number of little nicks on it. Nice but not A.U.

So long,

Dear Stan,

Your letter of the 12th instant is at hand. I have a customer who might be interested in the 1860-D gold dollar and will write to him about it. Should he want it, I shall let you know.

You can hold out the 1849 no L dollar and send the other two at $29.00 if it will help. My limit is that much and this is it.

I have another customer who is interested in collection all of the "S" quarter eagles, so you might list and price them for me.

The Alaskan set would be worth about $50.00 to me. They are all nice and I presume that your set is the 1908 A.Y.P.E. issue or 1909 when ever this set was issued. I have the half and quarter now and would like to buy another quarter.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stan,

I have your card of 11/5/ asking why I don't want the 1842-$5. I'm glad you asked so I can let you know. I will buy when I see the right prices but you quote me high Collector prices.

Now I seen a 1842-$5. from a leading gold dealer in Cleveland A NA show for $100.00 why didn't I buy it? This was the circumstances I had just bought quite a few coins + no money but I had some scarce $1. Silver so I had to sell them first + did but till I got back the 1842-$5. was gone. So you see how I feel about paying $125. for an E.F.

~~I know about it~~

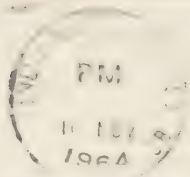

appreciate your lists but never see the right price to suit me. expect to be leaving for Fla. after Thanksgiving.

Thanks for your offerings of the 28th ultimo, but it is regretted that none are of particular interest right now. The better dates has slowed down and even though I don't want to lower my asking prices, I do not care to take on more of the same material. Right now three pieces of the 1889 eagle are on hand in EF-unc. Even at $150, I would not care to take on another one.

Keep me in mind on VF-EF gold dollars at $29.00 each. I will buy up to 100 pieces at that rate.

Dear Stan:

I have your letter of November 12th in front of me, where you offer $7.50 for the 1842-3 $10. and ask me to send it to you.

Now on November 15th you state you can't make enough on it because of what a similar coin brought 3 years ago in the Holman sale, etc.

You certainly know all the records of what this set was brought at sales etc, before you ask me to send it, and when you make your offer. Now that after you receive the coin you knock off $25, it is apparent you just want to cheat on the deal.

As far as I am concerned you owe me $25. on the above, and I will expect your payment....and if not please do not order any more coins from any of my sets in future.

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

Under date of December 1, I ordered from you one 1892 XF $2.50 gold coin - $100.00 and under date of December 4, you acknowledged receipt of this order and advised the coin would be shipped the following Monday. Upon return to the office this morning the coin was here and is as you advertised XF except the coin has a small "nick" cut out of the rim of the reverse side. Apparently this was done to test the coin as you know was the occasion some years back. Otherwise, the coin is alright.

Can you give some financial consideration to the damage on this coin? I also would be interested in a 1889 $10.00 gold coin in EF or XF condition.

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I have your recent letter accompanied by Lot No. 603 the 1833 Five Dollar gold piece. Frankly, I rather feel that you are obligated to purchase the coin. In the first place it is not mine. In the second place, it was ungraded in the auction and it is every bit as described. And finally, I feel it is a fair value. I did have a somewhat higher bid although only very slightly so, and because of the fact that I did not know the man and could not come to terms with him, I elected to send the coin to you instead.

Please advise me of your decision.

Sincerely,

CS:lf

Dear Stan,

Thanks for your various offers to trade, but it is regretted that none are of interest to me. The 1857-O half eagle has been sold for sometime now. I send my Alaska half and one pennyweight pieces out on memo at $65.00 for the pair. You could have them at that price if at all interested. It seems that you value your set around $125 and the 1/4 dwt is not worth more than $25 or so. Where is the difference? I can get you another one dwt at $50.00 incase you are interested.

Sincerely yours,

P.S. I can pay $30.00 for nice V.F. or better gold dollars. Just send them if you run into any. I am also looking for E.P. or better threes.
